

Inspired by Nature: Artmaking on the Trails

Materials List

Day 1

- Multimedia or watercolor sketchbook. Size: at least 6x8 inches, no bigger than 9x12
- Limit yourself to THREE art supplies of your choice that you don't typically use. Keep in mind it needs to be quick drying, self-contained, and portable. Suggestions: oil pastels, ink pen, sharpie, paint pen (acrylic), colored pencils, charcoal, small travel paint set.
- We will be "roughing it", but if you need more cushions or structure for medical reasons, bring a mobile seating option. Keep in mind you will need to carry your own gear on your back. Wheeled carriers are not ideal for the trails.

Day 2

- Multimedia or watercolor sketchbook (no bigger than 9x12)
- Bring THREE art supplies, like Day 1. You can bring the same three or try another selection of three. Keep in mind it needs to be quick drying, self-contained, and portable. See suggestions above.
- Bring two size paint brushes and watercolors. Depending on what you have, bring a small selection or travel size.

Day 3

- Bring all the sketches/drawings/elements created from Day 1 and 2.
- Bring a substrate to complete your finished work/s on. For example, canvas, panel, or paper. Suggested size is 12x12 or smaller. Maybe (2) 10x10 or (3) 8x8...start a series from your experience!
- Bring additional materials that you need to make the final work/s. Meaning: if you are collaging, bring glue. If you are painting, bring paints, rags, and water bowl. If you are
