

Sarah Bice

Let me first say, I love color! I am a self taught artist and I live in Fort Sumner, New Mexico. I am a single mom of 7 amazing kiddos. I grew up on a ranch in eastern New Mexico. I long to bring a brighter side of the West for all to enjoy! My personal style emanates joy and beauty. From colorful cactus to exciting Indian headdresses I endeavor to bring this beauty and happiness to all. My goal through my art is to showcase that the West not only has thorns but flowers! That it holds a beauty all it's own, and if you look hard enough you'll see it loud and clear!
